Meeting of December 10, 2020

Employment. The Board accepted the resignation of Joseph Atencio - custodian. The Board approved Nahum Andres Garcia, Jr – custodian, Brenda Naranjo – custodian and Trinidad Corvera – certified substitute.

The Ultimate Pirate Award. Mr. Wiedeman presented the Ultimate Pirate Award to Jesus Felix, David Clutter, Colton Mellott, Kaden Mellott and Cole Hindes. When most teenagers would prefer to do other things, these young men spent time on a Saturday morning moving five rooms of furniture for a retired minister and his wife. It lifted the burden for this couple and their son in getting the task accomplished. Thank you, Mr. Art Wittner for bringing these actions to the District's attention

Other Reports. Gary Wilkinson delivered holiday cards from the Board to be distributed to the staff thanking them for their hard work. Mr. Wilkinson attended the virtual CASB convention and found that our District is ahead of other district in implementing programs that address the education of the whole child including PBIS and CKH.

Superintendent Report. Mr. Wiedeman reported that MVSD students are doing well and did not lose too much ground last Spring when the schools were closed due to the pandemic. The Athletic Director is working on asking for a variance from Rio Grande County Health to hold Open Gym for the students. The Staff is being creative in ways to keep students engaged during this unusual times and stepping in to fill the gaps when various staff are required to be quarantined.

Action Items. The Board approved the minutes from meeting held on 11/12/2020; October Financial Reports and the Mill Levy Certification.
